WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 13.

COLORED MEN FOOLED.—One hundred and ten colored men from North Carolina and Virginia arrived at East Orange, N. J., on Monday. They were hired by three "employment agency" men to work on the new sewers, and the "agency" men were to receive a commission from the contractor for the sewer-pipe laying. The agents secured the men, they say, by all manner of representation, and in consequence when the laborers arrived and found how they were to be paid and to be treated they kicked like tucks. They had been promised from $1.25 to $1.50 per day with good board and lodging. When they arrived they were marched to an old hat shop, which was rented and fitted up with bunks. They were told that this was to be their lodging place. They also learned that they were to get $18 for a month's work, while their rations were to consist of corn meal and Indian meal. When the men found how they had been deceived they refused to enter the barracks, where a squad of Italians had recently been quartered. To make matters worse, the three agency men refused to listen to the complaints of the men, and attempted to drive them into the old hat shop. Late in the afternoon it looked as if there would be an outbreak, and the Orange and East Orange police were telephoned for. Chief Blaurock, of East Orange, and Sergeant Conroy, of Orange, soon had squads of men at the old shop, but there was no trouble. The colored men have agreed to remain in the barracks for a short time but if the agents do not keep their promises they will then demand that their fares home be paid.

"Isn't that Mrs. Holmes? I thought the doctors gave her up. She looks well now." "She is well. After the doctors gave up her case she tried Dr. Pierce's 'Favorite Prescription' and began to get better right away." I heard her say not long ago, that she hadn't felt so well in twenty years. She does her own work and says that life seems worth living, at last. "Why," said she, "I feel as if I had been raised from the dead, almost." Thus do thousands attest the marvelous efficacy of this God-given remedy for female weakness, prostration, ulceration, leucorrhoea, morning sickness, weakness of stomach, tendency to cancerous disease, nervous prostration, general debility and kindred affections.
